

Appendix 1. Illustrative pictures of victims of government brutality in Tanzania.

Mr. Tundu A. Lisu's car with over 30 bullet marks after he was attacked in broad daylight during the parliament sessions in Dodoma in September of 2017. His attackers were never brought to justice, and his case was never investigated by the Tanzania Police force.

The current leading opposition party of Chadema leader Mr. Tundu Antipas Lisu undergoing treatment after is 2017 assasination attempt in which he survived with multiple broken arm and leg leading to over 3 years of treatment in Belgium.

A poster of Mr. Dioniz Kipanya one of Chadema leaders advocating for his release. Mr. Dioniz disappeared after he was allegedly arrested by the Tanzania Police force. To date Mr. Dioniz has never been found, and his family has not been able to bring this case to a closure because no one knows if he is dead or alive.

Mr. Deusdedit Soka a young man from Dar es salaam Tanzania had been summoned by Police to report at a police station to pick up his motorbike. Having been threatened several times by unknown people, he decided to take two friends with him to Msimbazi Police Station in Dar es Salaam where he was supposed to report. He and his two friends never made it back home and have never been found since that fateful day in August of last year 2024.

Mr. Ali Kibao was the CHADEMA opposition party leader from Tanga region. A retired military officer was abducted in broad daylight while traveling from Dar es Salaam after attending a party meeting and his body was found two days later after he was tortured to death. His body was brutally burned from a chemical attack and his eyes had been pulled out.

Mr. Mdude Nyagali a Tanzania activist and opposition party stalwart who's whereabouts is unknown after he was allegedly abducted by government forces in Tanzania

Independent Journalist Mr. Sued Kubenea was attacked by acid while fulfilling his journalistic duties to uncover government corruption syndicate several years ago. This picture was taken while receiving treatment at a local hospital in Dar es Salaam.

Former Tanzanian Ambassador to Cuba Mr. Humphrey Polepole turned Samia Suluhu's government vocal critic was abducted while at his home in Dar es Salaam early in October 2025 and his whereabouts have yet to be established. Most people think that he probably died at the hands of his captors believed to be government secret police force.

A catholic priest Fr. Charles Kitima who is also the Tanzanian Catholic Bishops secretary has been a vocal critic of Samia Suluhu's government. He was recently attacked by hooligans while at his home in Dar es salaam and was severely beaten and wounded. The Police have not revealed any report on their investigation to capture those responsible.

A Tanzanian being rounded up and beaten by Tanzania police force. His crime was to attend the court hearing of leading opposition leader Mr. Tundu Lisu who is being held in isolation for treasonous charges in a Dar es Salaam Prison.

Innocent civilians in Dar es Salaam facing the wrath of Police brutality during the months leading up to the contested October 29th elections.