LINCOLN UNIVERSITY (PA) TO CONFER HONORARY DOCTORATE ON GHANIAN
PRESIDENT JOHN DRAMANI MAHAMA FOR GLOBAL LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE TO REPARATIVE JUSTICE

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, PA — Lincoln University is proud to announce that His Excellency John Dramani Mahama, President of the Fourth Republic of Ghana and the African Union's Champion for Advancing the Cause of Justice and the Payment of Reparations, will receive an honorary doctorate from the university on March 26, 2026. This is coming in recognition of his outstanding contributions to public service, democratic governance, peaceful international and inter-African relationships, and global advocacy for justice, equality, and education.

The honorary conferral event will highlight the shared mission of Lincoln University and President Mahama - to broaden access to education, champion social justice, and inspire servant leadership across national borders.

"Lincoln University is deeply honored to welcome President John Dramani Mahama to our campus and to bestow upon him an honorary degree in recognition of his distinguished leadership," says university president Dr. Brenda A. Allen. "His visit is especially meaningful as we celebrate the enduring global legacy of
